The first 1000 words

- Talk with your child about the pictures in the book. What is happening there and which words do you notice?
- Talk about the words your child does not know yet.
- Tell your child, what the objects are called and what they can be used for.
- Read the book multiple times with your child.
- When your child has heard the book multiple times, your child can begin to tell you what is happening in the book.
- Ideas for word-games: You change to take turns to find a word on every page, and see who can find most words.
