

Here are some examples on how you can create good dialogues about the pictures by using questions

Can you find the cat in the picture?
Why do you think it is on the cupboard?

Which items do you see in the kitchen cupboard? How do you use these items?

Why do you think the cupboard is open?

In what way do you mostly help out in our kitchen?

Why has the father filled the kitchen sink with water?

What does the mother do in the garden?

When do you use a light switch?

What do we have in our fridge?
When do we use the different items, which are in our fridge?

Talk about what you can see on the table.

Do you know what this is called?
When do we use the vacuum/hover?

Can you find a rolling pin in the picture?
Why do you think they are baking buns and cakes?

Talk about what you need have to be able to bake a cake?

Why do you wear an apron in the kitchen?

What is the dog doing?

How do you think the plate has been broken?

What has the boy in the green sweater spottet?

Why do you think the girl with the bowl on her head is looking like that?
